Adoption Center

There are no unwanted children...just unfound families.

2031 Sansom St., Phila., PA

Founded in 1972, the Adoption Center supports the adoption community in Pennsylvania, New Jersey and Delaware by:

- Finding and recruiting families for children who now live in foster care
- Working with public and private adoption agencies to expand adoption opportunities for children in their custody
- Providing information and referrals to families interested in adoption
- Creating adoption events that bring children and prospective parents together
- Partnering with the media to raise public awareness about adoption and encourage interest in a child waiting for adoption
- Developing training materials for adoption professionals
- Promoting fairness and equality in the child welfare field

The Adoption Center (23-1966667) is a registered 501(c)(3) charity.
Donations are tax-deductible to the extent allowed by law.

Your support directly impacts the lives of the youth we serve.
